WORMS

Unsuspected worms are the cause of numerous little things that go wrong with children. When a child is sick you rarely think that its sickness is caused by worms, yet worms either directly or indirectly are the cause of three quarters of all the ills of childhood. Children, and sometimes adults, feel out of sorts, are irritable, feel listless and unfresh in the morning; suffer with indigestion, have a variable appetite, foul tongue, offensive breath, hard and full belly, with occasional griping and pains about the navel; eyes heavy and dull; itching of the nose; short, dry cough; grinding of the teeth; slow fever; and often, in children, convulsions—in the majority of cases the cause of all the trouble is worms, though you may not suspect their presence.

DR. TRUE'S ELIXIR

A pure vegetable compound, has been the standard household remedy since 1851. It never fails to expel not only worms but all waste matter, leaving the blood rich and pure, the stomach sweet, the bowels regular and the whole system strong and healthy.

The mother who gives her children Dr. True's Elixir regularly is wise, because it not only increases the appetite and acts as a preventive of coughs, colds, fever and worms, but gives strength, robust health.

Sold by all Druggists. Price 35c, 50c and $1.00. Write for free booklet, "Children and their Diseases."

No. 1311.—Charade. They say to ONE and have TWO all day long. Yet when the summer sun is declining They perch aloft and sing their evening song. Then when at dawn they all begin to twitter, Again they scold and fuss among themselves. I wonder are they speaking of divorce, Of jealousy and love, those they elyve.

No. 1312.—Anagrams. Ma, notice pain. It is choral. Pooh, silly callip! Tom engages pa. I order hash. List, gamey lar. Try I price co. Rainy ravens.

No. 1313.—Hidden Word Square. Is Idaho merely a territory? This crop always is a failure. The corn I leave out frequently. He fell at his post bravely.

No. 1314.—Homonym. She is fat, she is fair, she is forty. And he may be six, I suppose. With fists some army and warty, With freckles all over his nose. Behold him  his goddess. The beautiful being who sits beside him. With frown on her arched and boned. A rolling pin clasped in her hands. She fashions  so ample. It dries his young heart all round. And frisks it by way of a sample. Till crisply, deliciously browned. That exquisite "cruller" he craves in bits too ecstatic to count. Oh, man, could you find one so luscious. How much would you give for it, pray?

No. 1315.—Charade. I. My first, a blessing seldom sought. Yet given to life its savor. My next, of wood or metal wrought. Finds out with woman favor. My whole is with her duties fraught. Since she never faces a foe.

II. My first we eat and yet it see. As fair and sweet as rose may be. My next a food of varied kind. As good as meat, so some folk find. These two combined will form a food. And thousands call it very good.

III. I would not be without my first. To keep it long I'd surely fear. My second I would have, of course. To frolic in the pasture near. But when whole, oh, spare me, do! It gives me such confusion dire. I'd take to my first if it came near. I would rather face a fire.
